Preventing Suicide

" . . brimming with clinical wisdom, enlightening case illustrations, and a vibrant sense of compassion."

David A. Jobes, PhD

Past President, American Association of Suicidology

"If I were to recommend only one book to equip clinicians to conduct the best possible suicide risk assessments, The Practical Art of Suicide Assessment would be it."

Thomas E. Ellis, PsyD, ABPP

Past Director, Clinical Division (AAS)

". . . provides the best systematic approach to suicide assessment and the tools to sharply reduce the risk of malpractice liability."

Phillip J. Resnick, M.D.

Professor and Director of Forensic Psychiatry
Case Western Reserve University

The classic text on Suicide Assessment now in paperback with over 60 additional pages!
Includes the highly acclaimed new appendix: "How to Document a Suicide Assessment"

Praise from Reviewers for "The Practical Art of Suicide Assessment" by Shawn Christopher Shea, M.D.

". . . a concise, carefully conceptualized, well-written book . . . highly recommended for psychiatric residents and all other mental health students. Their teachers as well will profit greatly by reading it."

Journal of Clinical Psychiatry

"This outstanding book is informative, interesting, and clinically useful . . ."

American Journal of Psychiatry

"Highly readable, engaging volume . . . Even if you are not directly involved in suicide risk assessment, this is a very worthwhile read. If you are directly involved, this is a must read.."

School Psychology Resources Online

"Remarkably concise and valuable information for clinicians at any level in any specialty ."

Counselor: The Magazine for Addiction Professionals
